

VENUE HIRE AT THE SOUTH LONDON GALLERY

AWARD-WINNING
CONTEMPORARY ARCHITECTURE
MEETS VICTORIAN ELEGANCE IN THIS GRADE II LISTED GALLERY IN CAMBERWELL AND PECKHAM

ABOUT US

The South London Gallery (SLG) is a distinctive and elegant setting for a range of private functions, receptions and corporate events.

The gallery is one of London's leading venues for contemporary art and live art events, with an innovative education and outreach programme. Often described as a 'hidden gem', the SLG continues to offer tranquil respite from the hustle and bustle of Peckham Road.

Founded in 1891, the gallery's impressive main building was constructed from Portland stone and hand-made pressed bricks, much favoured by the Arts and Crafts tradition of the time. Many of the original architectural features remain and these are now complemented by the South London Gallery's award-winning extension. Designed by 6a architects, the contemporary architecture of the Clore Studio and Double Height Room provide the perfect setting for daytime and evening events.

In 2016, the gallery had the stunning addition of the Orozco Garden and Fox Reception. The new permanent garden was created over two years by the artist Gabriel Orozco with support from 6a architects and horticulturists at the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew.

In September 2018, the SLG opened a second venue 120m down the road in the former Peckham Road Fire Station. The Grade II listed building dates from 1867 and now houses three floors of gallery space, and new options for venue hire in the Kitchen and Trusthouse Gallery.

The gallery welcomes over 190,000 visitors each year and is a registered charity. All income generated from venue hire directly supports the SLG's education, outreach and exhibition programmes.

2. OROZCO GARDEN

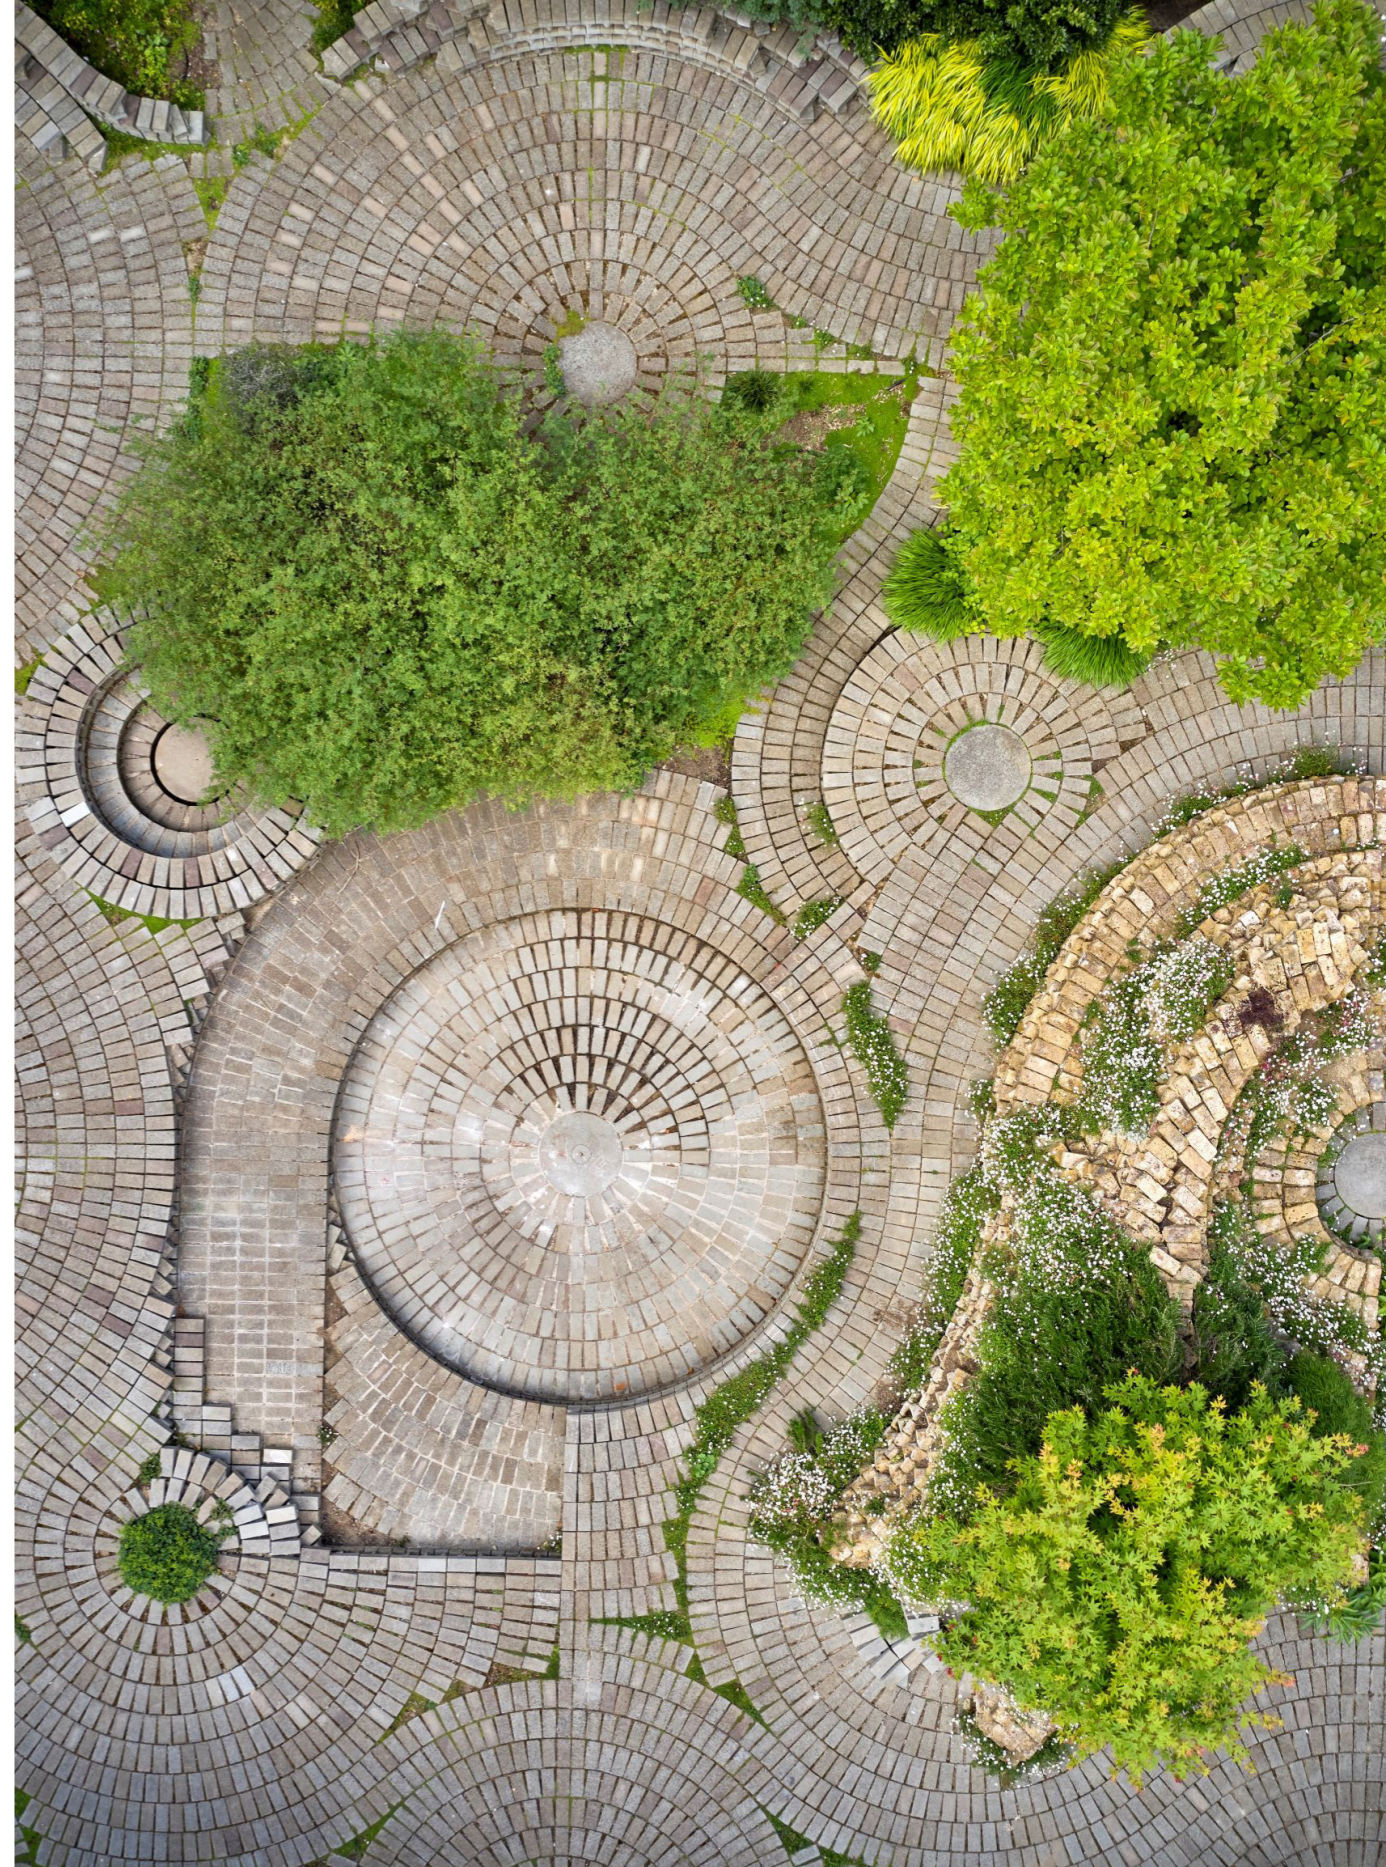

The Orozco Garden was created in 2016 by the artist Gabriel Orozco, with support from 6a architects and horticulturists at the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew.

Gabriel Orozco, who was born in Mexico and currently lives in Tokyo, is one of the leading artists of his generation. He has exhibited extensively internationally and periodically in London including a major mid-career retrospective at Tate Modern in 2011. For his first ever garden commission, he embraced the challenge of transforming a paved area at the back of the SLG's Main Building into a unique sculptural work.

The choice of materials was drawn from the language of the gallery's Victorian building and includes bricks from the rear facade. Playing on the idea of an urban ruin, the garden will gradually evolve with different grasses, low level creepers and fragrant plants.

Dimensions

16.5 x 15.5m

3. FOX RECEPTION

With glass doors looking out onto the Orozco Garden, the Fox Reception is a beautiful space and perfect for small groups, whether for a meeting, evening drinks or a private dinner.

This is a light, bright space and is decorated by an intricate architectural plan of the Orozco Garden on the wall.

Capacity

16 seated / 20 standing

FURTHER INFORMATION

Availability and Timings

The Clore Studio, Fox Reception and Orozco Garden can be hired, subject to availability, at any time during the week, 9am - 11pm, and on weekend evenings, 6pm – 11pm.

The Fire Station Kitchen can be hired daily, 9am - 11pm.

The Trusthouse Gallery can be hired daily, 9am - 11pm, when there are no exhibitions in the space.

The Double Height Room, and adjoining Fox Garden can be booked directly with the cafe-restaurant in the evening at times when the gallery is closed, and can occasionally be booked in conjunction with the Clore Studio and/or Fox Reception for early evening drinks (up to 40 guests).

The minimum booking is for a half-day or evening. When making your booking please allow for any time you may need to set up prior to the start of your event and to clear the space afterwards as any additional services or use of the rooms will be charged.

Music

If you are booking the Clore Studio you can have access to the room's built-in sound system to which you can connect up your laptop, MP3 player or iPod to play music. The SLG's sound system can reach a maximum of 63 amps and we are happy to provide guidance about whether hiring in a PA system may be appropriate for your plans. Please note that as the main building is located in a residential area we have to be mindful of our neighbours and require the pivoting doors to the Clore Studio to be closed from 9.30pm onwards with no music in the gardens after this time. Access to the garden after 9.30pm is via the Clore Studio's standard door.

Access

The SLG has step-free access throughout its gallery spaces, hire spaces, cafe and gardens.

The Orozco Garden is wheelchair accessible on the outer path, but please note the central path features some planting areas which can create gaps of up to 22cm across in the pathway, which reduces its width to approximately 66cm wide. The Orozco Garden paths have paving stones with a minimum gap of 5mm between them, and a maximum gap of 30mm between them. Please note the Orozco Garden contains different levels and structures within it, including built-in seating areas.

For further information about accessibility at the South London Gallery, please contact us.

Deliveries

The SLG is not able to store items prior to or following your event. Please allow for deliveries and collection within the period of your event booking. There is a loading bay on Peckham Road outside the Main Gallery which permits deliveries, 10am-1pm. Parking for the Fire Station can be found on neighbouring residential streets. Please discuss arrangements for deliveries and pickups at the Fire Station

Support Staff

The SLG offers a friendly, welcoming and reliable team of staff to assist your event planning, as well as during your event.

HISTORY OF THE SLG

The South London Gallery opened in 1891 and was founded as a “gallery for the people of south London” which would be free for all and open on Sundays. The SLG has earned an international reputation for its pioneering programme of contemporary art exhibitions, live art events and education projects for children, young people and adults. The exhibition programme profiles the work of established international figures such as Dara Birnbaum, Ellen Gallagher, Michael Landy, Rivane Neuenschwander, Pae White and Lawrence Weiner; as well as that by younger and mid-career artists such as Alice Channer, Ryan Gander, Oscar Murillo, Eva Rothschild and George Shaw. Group shows bring together works by established and lesser-known British and international artists gallery’s live art, talks and film programme has featured presentations by Charles Atlas, Tony Conrad, Nathaniel Mellors, Shana Moulton, Kelly Nipper, OMSK, Gail Pickering, Lucy Raven, Marina Rosenfeld and Gisele Vienne.

Exhibitions are free, as well as many of the SLG’s events. The gallery is open to the public from Tuesday until Friday, 11am–6pm, and until 9pm on Wednesday evenings and the last Friday of the month.

The South London Gallery is a registered charity, number 312160.
